AIM Update!

October 3rd, 2014

Is that a chill in the air? Or, is it the common chill of being a Minnesota Vikings fan??? Either way, bundle up as we move into October in traditional AIM fashion! That is, being prepared for the weather and moving towards the ever changing work towards independence!

- THANK YOU to all families for hosting home visits! We sincerely appreciate you opening your homes to have discussion around skill development.
- MEA BREAK is coming up! No school for staff and students on October 16th and 17th.
- OPEN HOUSE for prospective students/families and community members. STUDENTS... consider helping us out the evening of Nov. 6th from 6-8pm. You could even stay after AIM... hang out... eat some dinner... help set up and then catch a ride home from a parent or carpool.
- STUDENTS: Not feeling well? If you are sick... stay home and rest up! Use your best judgement when deciding to come to AIM if you are sick. When in doubt... talk to a parent/guardian or give a case manager a call.
- If you missed Picture Day on September 17th, please plan for picture re-takes next Friday, October 10th. Students will take a shuttle to Lionsgate Crystal first thing in the morning and should return with plenty of time for Fun Friday activities. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Emily Richards (erichards@lgamn.org).
- New people and new assignments! Congratulations to Jason Walz as he's officially our Work Based Learning Coordinator! Jo Sander has officially stepped in to a case manager role! AND, a brand new staff member is among us! Please welcome Dallas Walker as a new job coach!
- "I ain't afraid of no ghost!" Well, ok...maybe I am. This probably goes without saying... as Halloween approaches, Lionsgate Academy does not allow masks and/or prop weapons etc. for Halloween. Just keep in mind we're keeping a professional atmosphere at AIM. Thanks!

AIM Update!

Did you know???

- October is national chili month! That's a great meal to prepare at home and have for leftovers!
- The most expensive apple goes for $21 per apple!!! That's right, take a trip to Japan and enjoy the Sekai-Ichi apple!
- The heaviest pumpkin is over 2,000 pounds! That's a whole lotta pumpkin!!!

Ummm... I think I'll have to stick with the ol' Honey Crisp. Have a great weekend!
